Two-time Academy Award winner and Tony Award winner Denzel Washington returns to Broadway in one of the signal roles in the American theatre in Eugene O'Neill's The Iceman Cometh, for 14 weeks only. Washington, fresh off his extraordinary sell-out runs in both Fences and A Raisin in the Sun, comes back to the Main Stem in this seminal work by a seminal playwright. Five-time Tony winner George C. Wolfe directs this strictly limited engagement.

SYNOPSIS: Set in the summer of 1912 at Harry Hope's saloon on New York's lower west side, this is O'Neill's classic story of a freespending, boisterous salesman who compels his fellow barflies to confront their pipe dreams. Alcohol Personified Hickey is the personification of alcohol in The Iceman Cometh.
